WELCOME SPRING

Everything is starting to grow, including Art and Heirloom Shoppe. Our numbers are at 45 artists represented in our lovely space.

Just as the blossoms promise to come back, we promise an interesting time with each visit to the shoppe. Displays are varied and ever-changing!

We offer after hours tours for groups, call to book yours today! Chris at 519 401 3083.

March's theme for the window display is Abstract and it doesn't disappoint! Our April window is all about florals.

Recently Sue and Chris went to the SWOTC (tourism) Conference, coming away with all sorts of new ideas and contacts. Art and Heirloom Shoppe will be positioned to grow even more.

Classes at the Shoppe

Beverly Fish will be teaching the elements of water colour to our first group of students on March 31, 2020. Theme is Succulents. All materials are supplied. Class is 2-4 p.m. Class size is limited and cost is $35.00. Please pre-book at the gallery, 137 King W, Chatham.

Later this spring, classes by Beverly Fish, Penelope Duchesne, Sue Rumball and Charlene McGill will be announced on our Facebook page, website and posters at the Shoppe. Monday, April 20, 2020, Beverly will teach mixed media on canvas – Spring Florals.

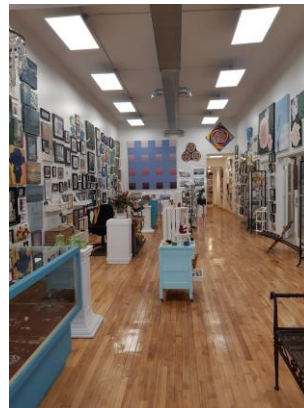

Sue and Chris are always on the look out for different types of art works. If you are an artist and want to discuss how to be showcased in the gallery, email Chris 5 images of your work and a short bio.
